What he enjoys now

- I continue to practice in Malviya Nagar, New Delhi, an area where I established my clinic 45 years ago. I also practice from my residence in Gurgaon.
- Also visit a charitable clinic in Gurgaon where I offer my help and support to the poor and the needy who do not have access to quality healthcare
- I actively contributed to the Indian Medical Association at pan Indian level & held positions of importance over a span of 15 years
- I am extremely fond of learning about current affairs, geopolitical situations around the world and listening to ghazals by maestros like Jagjit Singh
- I have a special interest in keeping in touch with my group of friends in Nirvana Country which includes retired professionals from both private and government companies
- My wife retired as Head of the Department for Geography from Mount Carmel School, New Delhi where she taught for over 30 years
- My wife enjoys contributing to social issues like helping the poor & the needy on an ongoing basis
- My wife has a special interest in trying new food recipes that allows us to share an enjoyable meal together at home as a family
